

PERKASIE, PA. – 8/5/2011 Heather McCloskey, CEO & Purple Cow Ambassador of McCloskey Partners, LLC, a full-service Human Resource firm in Bucks County, PA, was recently recognized by the Philadelphia Business Journal on 8/5/2011

“People on the Move” Heather was recognized for her efforts in assisting to launch Sisters U a Bucks County based women’s networking group.

Sisters U was launched in February 2011 along with Founder Karen Chellew.

McCloskey Partners, LLC provides a pathway to help businesses define the remarkable and ensure along the way that their employment related policies and procedures are legally defensible.

McCloskey Partners offers a full range of training and development and human resource services to small and medium-sized business in 15 states. McCloskey Partners’ mission is to partner with its clients and assist them in determining what makes their human capital remarkable. If something is lacking the McCloskey Partners team determines what is missing and creates a pathway to success.

To learn more about McCloskey Partners, LLC visit our website at www.mccloskeypartners.com, or check us out on Facebook and Twitter.