

www.sistersu.com
info@sistersu.com

In Photo: Karen Chellew, CEO of Sisters U
Heather McCloskey CEO of McCloskey Partners and COO of Sisters U

Perkasie, Pa. – McCloskey Partners and Sisters U, a network group for women, hosted a Volunteer event at The Ronald McDonald House in Philadelphia, PA.

June 1, 2011 Prudential Insurance Company made funds available to Sisters U allowing its members the opportunity to make dinner for the families staying at The Ronald McDonald House. The Ronald McDonald House provides housing to families of critically ill children during their course of treatment at local area hospitals.

Sisters U is a women's network group whose mission is to provide resources, education, inspiration and motivation to help women develop the ability to identify what it is that makes them authentic, and then to support them in cultivating their unique identity. Sisters U seeks to inspire women to focus on being physically and emotionally healthy so that they can step out confidently into their world to share their authentic selves with every life they touch. Sisters U is committed to inspire women to be comfortable in their own skin, and then create motivation to reach out into their community with their unique authenticity to make a difference. Sisters U believes that every woman has a unique and specific purpose.

The women of Sisters U are United in their mission, Focused in their desire to make a difference and Moving Forward as a positive force into their community, in every life they touch, and in every venture they seek to accomplish. For more information about how you can be involved with Sisters U, visit www.sistersu.com, contact them at info@sistersu.com, or follow them on Facebook and Twitter.