Perkasie, Pa. – Sisters U, a network group for women, hosted a Kickoff Event held on February 24 to celebrate their arrival to the Community.

Sisters U started as just a dream to Founder and CEO, Karen Chellew, back in 2009 and now less than two years later that dream became reality with the help of COO and Co-founder, Heather McCloskey (CEO of McCloskey Partners, LLC a full service HR Firm in Perkasie, PA).

The mission of Sisters U is to provide resources, education, inspiration and motivation to all women, allowing them to identify what it is that makes them authentic and then to support them in cultivating their identity. Sisters U seeks to inspire women to focus on being physically and emotionally healthy so that they can step out with confidence into their world to make a difference and bring their authentic selves to every life they touch. Sisters U is designed to inspire women to take that first step to be comfortable in their own skin, and then create motivation to take the next step to reach out into their community with their unique authenticity. Sisters U believes that every woman has a unique and specific purpose.

The women of Sisters U are United in their mission, Focused in their desire to make a difference and Moving Forward as a positive force in every life they touch and in every venture they seek to accomplish.

“Sisters U is about being more, being who you are and being comfortable in your own skin” says Founder and CEO Karen Chellew.

The Kickoff event was a huge success with over fifty attendees who were eager to become members of Sisters U. The next Sisters U meeting is 3/31/2011. The meeting is open to the public and is free of charge.
