

Philadelphia Business Journal Honors McCloskey Partners 2013 Winner: Best Places to Work

9/18/2013 Philadelphia, PA – As a part of its annual awards program, The Philadelphia Business Journal has named McCloskey Partners as one of Philadelphia's Best Places to Work for 2013 for the second year in a row. Last evening McCloskey Partners was awarded the Silver Medal.

This award recognizes McCloskey Partners' achievements in creating a positive work environment that attracts and retains employees through a combination of employee satisfaction, working conditions and company culture. This selection process for this award involved a nomination as well as confidential employee surveys conducted earlier in the year. Employees answered confidential questions addressing such factors as their pride in the company, company encouragement, support and recognition of achievement and relationships with coworkers and supervisors.

"Being recognized for this award is an incredible accomplishment; since we know that it is truly our employees who make our business successful. They are the ones who make a difference to our clients," said Heather McCloskey, Founder and CEO. "Employees who are proud to go to work each day make a difference each time they make a decision, help a client, or create a new business process. We pride ourselves in being about more than just business."
