

Please join us in Welcoming
Jaime Maltese
to the McCloskey Partners Team!

Souderton, PA- January 16, 2019—McCloskey Partners, LLC is excited to announce that Jaime Maltese, joined the McCloskey Partners team on January 7, 2019 as a Human Resources Assistant.

Jaime holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Psychology and a Master of Arts degree in Counseling from Arcadia University. Jaime has 10 years of experience in higher education as an academic advisor and adjunct instructor. In addition to focusing on academics, Jaime also provided career counseling to undergraduate students, using a variety of assessments including the Myers Briggs Type Indicator (MBTI) assessment and several others.

Jaime has acquired expertise in mindset and grit research, and created and presented workshops for students as well as academic and student affairs professionals. Jaime joined the McCloskey Partners team after deciding to make a career change and transfer her skills to the field of human resources. She was able to bring her passion for perseverance and grit to the McCloskey Partners team along with her attention to detail, excellent interpersonal skills, and problem-solving ability.
